Recently Cindy and I and part of our team visited growers in Champagne and discovered a number of very high-quality, smaller producers. Legras & Haas (Bin 801) is a fantastic aperitif - long, clean, lacy & fine - and will greatly aid decision making on the dinner menu. If there were to be a house Champagne, it would surely be made by Egly-Ouriet, located in Ambonnay, a village surrounded by pinot noir and pinot meunier vineyards. All of their wines are rich & very very dry (low dosage). Most of their wines are made from Grand Cru grapes.

~

2006's are well-structured, plushly textured & just beginning to drink. Most of our 2006's will carry you through your meal.

~

Pol Roger "White Foil" Brut NV (Bin 806) is a classic, firm, medium-bodied, chardonnay-driven style. Long & nutty with clean minerals.

~

Bollinger "Special Cuvée" Brut NV (Bin 650) Classic wine with an assertive mouth feel; perfect for first course & beyond.

2002 is a great vintage. The wines have really matured attractively and in general are lush wines.

2209	Chablis 1er Cru "Butteaux" Domaine Servin 2016	$75	A producer we discovered with the 2010 vintage is Domaine Servin. They have a number of Premier Cru and village level wines & a superb quality-to-price ratio. I do expect their prices to greatly increase in the next few years. Our cellar also houses a collection from the great house of François Raveneau, through a series of years and appellations. These are big personal favorites of mine. Incredibly precise wines of very distinct character.

Côte de Beaune

85	Hautes-Côtes de Nuits, Domaine Bertagna 2016	$65	Two producers at opposite ends of the stylistic spectrum are producing Corton Charlemagne Grand Cru. Lucien Le Moine produces a very modern style white Burgundy with robust fruit intensity and very attractive oak seasoning. The venerable house of Louis Latour has been the standard-bearer in Corton-Charlemagne over the last century - wines of complexity and authority, with very layered personalities. Ripe with pineapple, hazelnuts & white dusty stones - these are incredible wines with white meat game and especially the cheese trolley.

Jean-Max Roger's Sancerre "Cuvée Marnes et Caillottes" (Bin 544) is an excellent example of Sancerre. The crispness of the Sauvignon Blanc balances well with the plump, bright grapefruit & white peach fruit and beautifully communicates the Kimmeridgian soil.

Grüner Veltliner is an ancient indigenous Austrian grape that is very green tea, jasmine, citrus peel, white pepper and light to medium-bodied in almost all its variations. It serves ideally in the part of the menu with raw seafood and with delicious little fried things like oysters & soft crabs.

Red Burgundy

There's a reason that there are 3 pages of red wines from Burgundy on the list. We have stocked the cellar with most years but 2009 & 2010 are especially strong. If you want to know what to drink with our menu and Cindy's cooking, throw a dart at these pages (or you can talk to us).

Clos de Vougeot, because of its variability in quality, is far and away the most under-valued Grand Cru. But the better parcels, in the hands of the best wine-makers, make some of the best wines in Burgundy to age long-term. We have a number of wines from great producers with some bottle age on them. These wines have been unfolding beautifully for years and will continue to do so.

~~

Jean-Nicolas Méo has to be one of the five most brilliant winemakers in Burgundy for Méo-Camuzet. His wines display more power & precision than I've tasted before. Aromas are at once floral and have a certain truffley minerality. The texture is delicate yet has abundant fine tannins.

There is no bottle of Beaujolais that we offer that I'm not very happy to drink, and the wines from 2015 are flat out historically important - the best vintage since 1976. These wines are absolutely "important" enough for a very special meal.

Château Ducru-Beaucaillou is a second growth estate that is my personal favorite of St. Julien. The balance of length, finesse, minerality and beautiful, satisfying, complex fruit is unrivaled.

I encourage you to take a look at the Clos du Marquis 2009 (bin 2121), the second label of the famed Léoville Las Cases. A little less dense but every bit as mineral and Cabernet Sauvignon-dominant as big brother.

Money can buy happiness - it is in bin 2511 (at least 750 mL worth of it).

Hermitage is the ancient home of Syrah in France. The grape has been documented to grow there for more than 1100 years. Hermitage vineyards are essentially sitting like a monk's cap of granite atop a very round hill directly across the river from the town of Tain (where Valrhona chocolate was born and is produced). The best vintages for Hermitage are always when that granite cap is roasted thoroughly in the sun.

Marcel Guigal bottles three single-vineyard Côte Rôtie. Every vintage receives special attention in the vineyard and the cellar. The wines typically spend 42 months in oak casks during their upbringing and often seem to "die" in barrel. A few years later they are reborn when bottled. Uniquely intense and balanced individual expressions; La Turquie is to Beethoven as La Landonne is to Brahms and La Mouline is to Chopin.

Jumilla, El Nido "El Nido" (bin 2152x) is a super interesting buy for consumers of California Cabernet. While it has mammoth size & fruit, the wine delivers a darker fruit accent & mellower tannins.

All the Cune wines are bottled and then stored, unlabelled, in the historic cellars. They are stored without labels because the labels would quickly deteriorate in the humidity of these cellars. Plus, the bottles might stay there for decades, undisturbed. Before release, the bottles are hand cleaned and labelled. Cune never recorks its library wines. Recorking exposes the wine to the atmosphere and changes it. The wines do not see the light of day from the day they are bottled until they are released.

We've chosen a few particularly ageworthy wines to offer in large formats in part because the larger format allows the wines to age more successfully and because of course, it is always more festive to have a big bottle at the table. It is best to allow us some decanting time, or order a bottle a day or two in advance, so we can properly care for it and it can be served as intended, the show-stopping centerpiece of your dinner party.
